The Littlejohn Libel Suit.-Dewitt C. Littlejohn against Horace Greeley-damages laid at $25,000 take Oswego Circuit before Judge Bacon, and fully reported for THE TRIBUNE by J. L. Crosby—is published in a nest, compact pamphlet of 56 pages, and for sale at this office. Price 10 cents. Although the great bulk of the evidence collected for the defense was ruled out by Judge B., yet the opening on that side by ISAIAH T. WILLIAMS, eaq., gives a good idea of its character and of the grounds of our dise teem of the New-York regislation of 1980, its engineers, and their instruments. The relings of Judge BACON and the comments thereon by JOHN K. PORTER, esq., of Albany, deserve and will commund the attention of lawyers and jurists. And whoever wents to see ound the whatever can be said against the defendant in this suit by a bitter political and general adversary, who knows that he is set to be answered, must be gratified with the summing up for the plaintiff by the Hon. HENRY A. FOSTER. The c ration of the defendant by the Hon. CHAS. B. SEDG WICK likewise, presents some noteworthy aspects. As pofitical libel suits are less common than formerly, and as the signature of 1800 is a subject of enduring interest, we believe many will find this pamphlet worth reading and preserving

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. NEW VOLUME.

On the seventh of September, 1881, THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence; THE DAILY TRIBUNE being some months older and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger. For more than twenty years, this journal has labored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Freedom, endeavoring to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our counand commend to-day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to-morrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we To develop the minds of the young by the most general orough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimciste Productive Industry, through free grants of Public Lands of immeture or peculiarly exposed branches from too powerful foreign competition, are among the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it stead-fastly commends to American patriotism and philanthropy.

As to the Civil War now devastating our country, we hold it cosable, then was ever before known—a Rebellion in the interest of the few against the many—a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principle o avoid this War, and witnessed the forbearance, meekness and long suffering with which the Federal Government sought to avert its horrors, we hold it our clear duty, with that of every other citizen, to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen rulers, and to second with all our energies their efforts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the Laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, decep-tion, terrorism, and spoliation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic far stronger, and that the unanimous earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its over carnest efforts of loyal heerts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People-have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emergency.

In a crisi like the present, our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with chackations of its more striking incidents. We shall not, however, remit that attention to Literature, to Foreign Alfairs, to Agricultural Progress, to Clops, Markets Acc. &c. which has arready, we treat, won for THP. TRIBUNE an honorable position among its cotemporaries. Our main object is and shall be to produce a comprehensive newspaper, from which a carein reader may glean a vivid and faithful history of the times, not mercely in the domain of Action but in that of Opinion also.
As our facilities for acquiring information increase with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in the variety and failness of intelligence afforded, we may still hope to "make each day a critic on the last." In this hope, we solicit a continuance of the generous measure of patronage hitherto accorded to our journal.

The North American Review for October says:
We have as yet seen no American publication of any kind which can bear comparison with this French work in point of fervent seal for the cause of Freedom, order, and progress, as involved in our existing civil war. We hope the translation will have extensive currency, for it cannot fall to impure and nourish tree particitant.
The Methodist Quarterly for October says of it:
"America may well accept the views and counsels of as gausine a friend and so pure and nobles spirit as Gasparin. Most hearily do we recommend to the attention of the American people the thoughtful and hopeful utterances of this their noble friend."
